Item 5.02 Departure of Directors or Certain Officers; Election of Directors; Appointment of Certain Officers; Compensatory Arrangements of Certain Officers.

(b) On February 8, 2017, the Company announced during its quarterly earnings call that Joseph Gleberman expressed his intent to resign from the Board of Directors (the "Board") of Limelight Networks, Inc. (the "Company") prior to the 2017 Annual Meeting of Stockholders (the "Annual Meeting"). Mr. Gleberman's decision to not stand for re-election as a director of the Company is not the result of any disagreements with the Company relating to its operations, policies, or practices.

(d) The Company also announced during its quarterly earnings call the appointments of Doug Bewsher and Scott Genereux to the Company's Board to fill the vacancy created by the departure of Gray Hall from the Board on October 14, 2016, as well as the impending vacancy by Mr. Gleberman's expected resignation. Each will serve until his successor is duly elected and qualified. Mr. Genereux will serve as a Class I director of the Company and will be presented to the shareholders for election to the Board at the upcoming Annual Meeting. Mr. Bewsher will serve as a Class II director of the Company and will be presented to the shareholders for election to the Board at the 2018 Annual Meeting of Stockholders. To facilitate the appointment of Messrs. Genereux and Bewsher, from the effective date of their appointments until the effective date of Mr. Gleberman's resignation, the eight members of the Board shall consist of two Class I directors, three Class II directors, and three Class III directors. Following these appointments and Mr. Gleberman's resignation, the Board will consist of two Class I directors, two Class II directors, and three Class III directors.

As a result of the above-referenced appointments to the Board, Messrs. Bewsher and Genereux will receive an initial award under the Company's Amended and Restated 2007 Equity Incentive Plan restricted stock units at a fixed value of $175,000. These RSUs will vest over a three-year term. The Company also plans to enter into an indemnification agreement with each of Messrs. Bewsher and Genereux in the same form as the indemnification agreements the Company has entered into with other members of the Board. Messrs. Bewsher and Genereux also will be eligible to receive cash compensation under the terms of the Company's non-employee independent director compensation program.

On February 9, 2017, the Company issued a press release regarding the appointments of Messrs. Bewsher and Genereux and Mr. Gleberman's intention to resign. The press release is filed with this report on Form 8-K as Exhibit 99.1 and is incorporated herein by reference.

Limelight Announces Changes to Board of Directors

New Directors Bring 50 Years of Combined Industry Experience

TEMPE, Ariz., February 9, 2017 – Limelight Networks, Inc. (Nasdaq: LLNW), a global leader in digital content delivery, today announced that Doug Bewsher and Scott Genereux will join its Board of Directors.

“Doug and Scott have more than 50 years of industry experience between them, and they’ll be great additions to our board,” said Walter Amaral, Chairman of Limelight’s Board of Directors. “Their expertise and insights will be extremely beneficial to Limelight and our shareholders. We look forward to working with them to help create sustained profitable growth and long-term shareholder value.”

Mr. Bewsher is currently CEO of Leadspace, a leading venture backed company in the predictive analytics and data management space. Before Leadspace, he was CMO at both Salesforce.com and Skype, and prior to that was at McKinsey where he co-led the North American CRM practice. Mr. Bewsher has an M.B.A. from INSEAD Paris, and an M.A. in Physics from Oxford University.

Mr. Genereux is EVP of Veritas where he is responsible for worldwide field operations. Most recently, he headed up cloud infrastructure-as-a-service sales for Oracle. Prior to Oracle, Mr. Genereux served as CEO of cloud storage pioneer Nirvanix and also held global sales and marketing leadership roles at QLogic and DataDirect Networks. Mr. Genereux has a B.S. in Management Information Systems from California State University at Northridge.

In addition, Joe Gleberman has announced his intent to resign from Limelight’s board before the next annual shareholders meeting. Mr. Gleberman has served on the board for over 10 years, joining the Limelight board in 2006 as the Goldman Sachs representative. Mr. Gleberman’s decision to resign as a director of the Company is driven by personal reasons and is not the result of any disagreement with the Company relating to its operations, policies or practices.

“On behalf of management and the board I want to thank Joe for his years of service,” said Mr. Amaral, “We appreciate Joe’s contributions and wise counsel over his decade long tenure, and we know that he will remain a friend of Limelight.”
